

Home >

Toi Uru Kahikatea Investment Programme - contracts extended into 2022

Closing date: 26 Oct 2021

We have extended the contracts of 17 New Zealand arts organisations in the Toi Uru Kahikatea programme.

These organisations were due to re-apply to the programme in 2021. Due to the COVID-19 environment, their contracts have instead been extended for another year.

Funding recipients

Bridget Williams Books

Towards publishing books by New Zealand writers, as well as audience engagement activities.

LITERATURE AWARDED: $115,260

---

Dunedin Arts Festival

Towards delivering a biennial multi-disciplinary arts festival.

MULTI-DISCIPLINARY AWARDED: $109,140

---

Indian Ink Theatre Company

Towards an annual programme of developing, presenting and touring New Zealand theatre works.

THEATRE AWARDED: $326,400

---

Michael King Writers Centre

Towards an annual programme of residencies for New Zealand writers.

LITERATURE AWARDED: $86,700

---

Orchestras Central

Towards an annual programme of orchestral performances and community engagement activities.

MUSIC AWARDED: $142,800

---

Otago University Press

Towards publishing books by New Zealand writers.

LITERATURE AWARDED: $51,000

---

Red Leap Theatre

Towards an annual programme of developing, presenting and touring New Zealand theatre works, as well as education activities.

THEATRE AWARDED: $260,100

---

SCAPE Public Art

Towards developing temporary and permanent public artworks by New Zealand artists.

VISUAL ARTS AWARDED: $52,836

---

Silo Theatre

Towards an annual programme of developing and presenting New Zealand theatre works.

THEATRE AWARDED: $497,774

---

Tauranga Arts Festival

Towards presenting New Zealand works and writers in the biennial off-year Escape! Programme.

MULTI- DISCIPLINARY AWARDED: $26,010

---

Tawata Productions

Towards an annual programme of developing, presenting and touring New Zealand theatre works.

THEATRE AWARDED: $270,300

---

Te Pou Theatre

Towards an annual programme of developing, presenting and touring New Zealand theatre works.

THEATRE AWARDED: $357,000

---

The Conch

Towards an annual programme of developing, presenting and touring New Zealand theatre works.

THEATRE AWARDED: $382,500

---

The Pantograph Punch

Towards regular online publications, and commissioning and developing new works by New Zealand arts writers.

LITERATURE AWARDED: $116,270

---

Touch Compass

Towards an annual programme of inclusive contemporary dance and performing arts, as well as development opportunities.

DANCE AWARDED: $414,987

---

University of Waikato

Towards an annual writer-in-residence programme.

LITERATURE AWARDED: $27,316

---

WORD Christchurch

Towards presenting New Zealand works and writers at the WORD Christchurch literary festival.

LITERATURE AWARDED: $71,400

---

---

Copyright Creative NZ 2022

General copyright statement